REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. Claims 1-20 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the references of record teaches or suggests as cited in claims 1, 17, 19: thereafter forming a dopant source layer overlying the liner, the dopant source layer not being disposed along the upper portion of the trench sidewall; annealing the semiconductor substrate to drive a dopant from the dopant source layer through the liner into the semiconductor substrate adjacent to the lower portion of the trench sidewall while preventing the dopant from being driven into the semiconductor substrate adjacent to the upper portion of the trench sidewall, wherein the liner functions as a diffusion barrier inhibiting diffusion of at least one of oxygen or the dopant into the semiconductor substrate during the step of forming the dopant source layer, and permits the dopant to diffuse through the liner into the semiconductor substrate during the step of annealing to form the buried plate (as cited in claim 1); forming a dopant source layer overlying the liner along a lower portion of the trench sidewall; forming a cap layer covering at least an upper portion of the trench sidewall above the lower portion; annealing to drive a dopant from the dopant source layer through liner into the semiconductor substrate adjacent to the lower portion to form a buried plate, wherein the liner functions as a diffusion barrier inhibiting diffusion of at least one of oxygen or the dopant into the semiconductor substrate during the step of forming the dopant source layer, and permits the dopant to diffuse through the liner into the semiconductor substrate during the step of annealing to form the buried plate (as cited in claim 17); forming a cap layer covering at least an upper portion of the trench sidewall above the lower portion; annealing to drive a dopant from the dopant source layer through liner into the semiconductor substrate adjacent to the lower portion to form a buried plate; removing the cap layer, the dopant source layer and the liner from at least the lower portion of the trench sidewall; forming a node dielectric along the lower portion of the trench sidewall; and forming a node electrode on a side of the node dielectric opposite the buried plate, wherein the liner functions as a diffusion barrier inhibiting diffusion of at least one of oxygen or the dopant into the semiconductor substrate during the step of forming the dopant source layer, and permits the dopant to diffuse through the liner into the semiconductor substrate during the step of annealing to form the buried plate (as cited in claim 19).

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
